

Joshua Rosborough

Jay Rosborough has over sixteen years (16) experience with the Department of Defense. His last assignment was at the U.S. Embassy in Freetown, Sierra Leone, where he performed his duties as the Operations Coordinator for the Defense Intelligence Agency. He assisted and advised the U.S. Ambassador and Defense Attaché on various military, personnel, budget, security, and logistics support. Jay was responsible for Initiating & Submitting e-QIP applications for ADP-I and -II level positions of trusts for over 100 government staff and employees and for the coordination of air, ground and logistics for high profile V.I.P visits.

As a Sergeant First Class in the U.S. Army Special Operations Community, Mr. Rosborough served 5 tours overseas, three of which were in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom. Mr. Rosborough was also awarded the Bronze Star and Purple Heart for actions during dozens of U.S. Military Operations. He served as an Operations Coordinator, Platoon Sergeant, Sniper Section Leader, Pre-Ranger Instructor, Intelligence NCO, Unit Security Manager (JPAS), Systems Information Manager, Sniper Instructor, Squad Designated Marksman Instructor (SDM), Asymmetric Warfare Counter IED Instructor, Observer Controller (OCT), and holds the Record for the Longest Shot with the Semi-Automatic Sniper System (SASS) during combat Deployment. He also placed in the top 10 In the 2006 International Sniper Competition. Mr. Rosborough is a Graduate of Defense Intelligence Agency Joint Military Attaché Course, Diplomatic Foreign Affairs Counter Threat Course, Senior Leaders Course, Diplomatic Defensive Drivers Course, First Responder Course, Weapons of Mass Destruction Course, Ranger School, Sniper School, Survival Evasion Resistance Escape Course, Joint Personnel Adjudication Course, Combat Tracker Course, Combative Level II Course. In addition, Jay has managed, directed and facilitated the training of over 10,000 soldiers on Tactics Techniques and procedures during his service in the U.S. Armed Forces. Mr. Rosborough was authorized and cleared for top secret information and granted access to sensitive compartmented information.

In 2017 Jay Rosborough was the Marketing Director for CEDSYSTEMS LLC. a startup Cybersecurity Company in the Seattle, Washington (USA) area that aided several companies in developing their marketing plans for new products. Jay Managed marketing campaigns from creation to execution, creating marketing strategies through analysis of data and past business performance. Jay's additional duties included accountability and responsibility for marketing budgets and campaign financials.

Mr. Rosborough is currently the Chief Operations Officer (C.O.O) of Strategic Security Solutions (SL) Ltd referred to as 3SL In Sierra Leone, West Africa. 3SL is a Company that specializes in the provision of secured, insured and worldwide logistical shipment of precious minerals, metals, and currency. 3SL is an accredited subcontractor for Brinks Global Services, the world's premier provider of secure logistics and security solutions in more than 122 countries across 5 continents. Jays training and graduate status from the Northwest Gemological Institute, under the teaching of world-renowned gemologist, Ted Irwin, has enabled him to assist 3SL clients through his expertise in diamond properties, the correct applications of the 4 C's, grading and most importantly, the differentiation between authentic diamonds and fake/imposter diamonds.